

WHAT'S NEW &amp; HAPPENING IN TORONTO, ONTARIO CANADA – FALL 2018

TORONTO, CANADA (September, 2018) – Feel the cool air rush into Canada's Downtown as fall descends on Canada's largest city. While the leaves begin to change colour, Toronto continues to evolve with new city changes, restaurants, exhibits and fall-focused experiences! Read through our latest "What's New" for a list of notable updates and happenings around the city.

OPENINGS AND RENOVATIONS

The Museum of Contemporary Art Toronto \(MOCA\) opens on September 22 with a mission to "exhibit, research, collect and nurture innovative contemporary art and cultural practices that engage with and address issues and themes relevant to our times." MOCA has been given five million dollars from the Province of Ontario in its continued efforts to invest in strengthening communities. A 55,000 square foot space in the refurbished Tower Automotive building will be home to the newly relocated and reopened MOCA this fall.

Located in Toronto's famous Kensington Market, Fairland Funhouse is the lovechild of Toronto's most imaginative visual and music artists who have come together to transform an old grocery store from the 1950s into an interactive two-storey adventure world. Six suites in the underground art maze are designed in collaboration by a team of local well known artists and musicians partnered with visual creators. The pop-up will be open for business on September 14 and will run until the end of the year, at which point it will be replaced by Liquor Donuts in 2019.

The Museum of Illusions will be opening its first Canadian location in Toronto early this fall, and promises to be the largest permanent tourist attraction to open in Toronto since Ripley's Aquarium in 2013. The museum is to be filled with holograms, optical illusions, installations and unusual rooms. Now under construction at 132 King Street East in Toronto's St. Lawrence Market district, Museum of Illusions will have 60-70 exhibits to start and attracts over one million visitors annually at its other locations.

Ontario Place continues its expansion this fall with the continued rolling out of new park areas, restaurants and movie screening at the world's first permanent IMAX® theatre will feature a variety of programming throughout Winter at Ontario Place. Also announced is the remounting of the Winter Lights Exhibition. Utilizing creativity, innovation, light and discovery, Ontario-based creators from all artistic streams will showcase their exhibits following the curatorial theme of "Disruptive Engagement".

A Victorian mansion in the Church-Wellesley village will play host to Toronto's newest and nerdiest sports bar, Storm Crow Manor. Its first installment, the Storm Crow Tavern, opened its doors in Vancouver in 2012 and was quickly hailed "the nerdiest bar in Canada." The Toronto installment, however, promises to be "the biggest and most insane of the three locations, with secret doors, alternate-reality hunting salons, post-apocalyptic lounges and mad scientist cocktail bars." Experience all the nerdy fun this fall at 580 Church Street (at Dundonald).

This winter, St. Regis Hotels & Resorts will mark its Canadian debut with the arrival of The St. Regis Toronto 65-stories in the heart of downtown. The Adelaide Hotel is currently undergoing an extensive facelift that will unveil 124 luxury suites, a completely redesigned lobby, bar and lounge, two-level spa and a signature restaurant and bar located on the 31st floor offering views of downtown and Lake Ontario. Dating back to 1904, expect the hotel to extend its rich lineage with their iconic butler service, afternoon tea, and champagne sabering each evening in the hotel lobby.

The home of the Marlies is now known as the Coca-Cola Coliseum. The arena on CNE grounds has a capacity of 8,300 fans, and had been called Ricoh Coliseum for the last 15 years. Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment announced its 10-year partnership with Coca-Cola on Wednesday for the Marlies home. The soft drink giant will donate a suite to non-profit community organizations for all Marlies home games and open the rink for several community skate events.

When Canada's Wonderland opens its gates for the 2019 season, the park's skyline will be forever transformed by Yukon Striker – the longest, fastest and tallest dive roller coaster in the world. Situated in the newly themed area Frontier Canada, Yukon Striker will be the country's first dive coaster and the park's 17th coaster, placing Canada's Wonderland among the world's top three amusement parks with the most roller coasters.

The CN Tower's newly renovated main observation level, LookOut Level, offers an eye-opening, mind-blowing new perspective on the most spectacular views in Toronto with this dramatic $16M upgrade. An all new Glass Floor has been installed directly above the original, providing a dramatic, two-tier vertical view 346 metres (1,136 feet) towards the ground. New floor-to-ceiling glass "Window Walls" have been installed across three separate sections of the observation level, providing near seamless unobstructed panoramic views. Using the latest in engineering technology, the "Window Walls" enable children and people with mobility challenges to fully enjoy the breathtaking panoramic views of Toronto.

RESTAURANTS

Alobar, the bar cousin to Alo and Aloette, has opened at 57A-162 Cumberland (at Avenue) in Yorkville. Arriving just in time for the fall, Alobar puts its foot forward as a cocktail bar, but is also a full-fledged restaurant, offering choice seafood with the finest accoutrements, fish and chops off of the charcoal grill, and world-class wines, all served with genuine hospitality.

Featuring a range of fare, including vegan and vegetarian options, the Vista Eatery provides fine foods at a casual price. Now open, The Ontario Place exclusive restaurant offers a newly licensed patio overlooking the lake and features an eclectic menu by critically acclaimed chef Daniel Janetos.

Petros 82 at the Hotel X Toronto opens this fall offering a high end culinary experience that embraces Hotel X Toronto's passion for flavourful, natural and sustainable food. This 10,000 sq. ft. Mediterranean fine-dining restaurant, located on the garden level will include two private dining rooms with 15-person capacity each, plus seasonal outdoor seating.

Another unique venture of chef Daniel Janetos is that of Shaolin Ancient Dumpling. This pop-up experience is a collaboration with 34th generation Shaolin Monk, Shifu Yuan Jing. Beginning weekly from September 9, the ancient Shaolin and culinary experience; creating dumplings with a culinary master and learning Kung Fu with the Kung Fu master himself.

Soon to be joining Toronto's west end, Mother Tongue is a modern Asian restaurant and cocktail bar that will focus on Filipino, Japanese, Chinese and Canadian cuisine. The restaurant will be opening this September in the Templar Hotel at 348 Adelaide Street West.

Dinner Time Stories, presented by HEXO, is a distinctive culinary experience taking place at Katana (333 Bay Street) from September 29 to November 25. The elegant six-course meal embarks on a journey through the footsteps of Marco Polo guided by Le Petit Chef, with an international menu curated and presented by Chef Bashir

Munye and 10tation event catering. The culinary event is an exploration of incredible flavours, 3D digital mapping, visual artistry and immersive storytelling delivering an unforgettable trip around the world in just two hours.

Byblos represents a marriage of Eastern Mediterranean cuisine with strong influences from both traditional and local ingredients. Opening its second location at Yonge and Eglinton later this year, Byblos uses time-honored classic cooking techniques and modern methods. The menu features Mediterranean cuisine with a true coastal and cultural mosaic, served family style in a convivial atmosphere.

Celebrity hotspot d|bar at Four Seasons Hotel Toronto introduces a new look, complete with revitalized decor and LED art display screens Just in time for TIFF, relaunching on September 4. In addition to great food, drinks, music and company, d|bar will have two curated art exhibits for a limited time; a larger-than-life photography display honours women in film and television, while a mirrored installation invites guests to capture their own story.

The refresh features a blush-tone design by Alison McNeil, menu curated by Michelin-starred Chef Daniel Boulud and a digital installation of LED screens conceived by hotel owner Shajid Khan. The changes at d|bar are one of many of the hotel's overall enhancements which includes updates to its lobby and spa.

Cauldron Ice Cream, a California-based chain known for its rose-shaped, liquid nitrogen ice cream and original 'Puffle Cones' is expanding in a major way. Five stores are planned for the GTA alone, and the first is now open at 502 Queen Street West. The company prides itself on its homemade all natural ice cream made in small batches. With flavours rotating every month, Cauldron Ice Cream is sure have a tasty treat for everyone.

The Mad Radish, the brainchild of the famous founder of David's Tea, David Segal, is a salad chain opening its first Toronto location at 2293 Yonge and Eglinton in October. Mad Radish is committed to making healthy food for busy people, all without breaking the bank.

Gyu-Kaku is about to bring its brand of DIY BBQ to yet another Toronto neighbourhood. The chain of Japanese barbecue restaurants already operates locations across the US and Canada including a Toronto outpost on Church at Adelaide. Now a new outpost is planned for North York near Sheppard and Victoria Park, slated to open this fall.

Brought to you by the team behind Barberian's Steakhouse, Harry's Steakhouse will be opening its doors this fall. Expect to be delighted with their celebrated cuisine of course including its renowned steak. Since the opening of their first restaurant in 1959, the Barberian family has been patriotically Canadian with every effort being made to retain the character of original historic buildings in which their restaurant occupies, all while showcasing authentic Canadian artwork.

Located in Brookfield Place, Chotto Matte will give you an experience you will want to repeat, with its mix of a contemporary urban environment, spectacle and great cuisine. The Nikkei cuisine is at the heart of the Chotto Matte experience which will open in late 2018. It embraces the very best of Nikkei (Japanese – Peruvian) cuisine, with bold eye-catching natural colours and mouth-watering taste sensations.

Toronto's East End is getting a brewery of its own in the form of Avling Brewery. Avling aims to create exceptional and experimental beer, food, and experiences showcasing Canadian flavours and locally farmed ingredients. The brewery will be located at 1042 Queen Street East, and will be opening at an undisclosed date this fall.

The Canadian Opera Company:

- ❖ Tatyana's quiet existence is turned upside down with the arrival of the handsome and charismatic Onegin. Romantic fantasies burst into vivid reality, inspiring Tatyana's famous letter, which Onegin arrogantly rejects. Years later, separated by time and circumstance, they are reunited for one final, explosive encounter. Watch the elegant simplicity beginning on September 3 at the Four Seasons Centre.
- ❖ Emperor Hadrian is devastated after his lover Antinous drowns in the Nile River. While matters of state encroach on his grief, and advisors clamour for war against a radical new threat to the Empire, Hadrian slips out of time to re-encounter the vision and reality of Antinous—and learn the truth about what happened on the Nile. This highly anticipated world premiere from composer Rufus Wainwright and librettist Daniel MacIvor features the company debuts of opera legends Thomas Hampson and Karita Mattila, and is on stage at the Four Seasons Centre from October 13 to October 17.

Mirvish Productions:

- ❖ After a sold-out, standing-room only Toronto engagement before heading to Broadway, Come From Away continues its triumphant extended run until April 2019. It will stay its run at the Royal Alexandra Theatre until February, when it will be transferred to the Elgin Theatre. Set in Newfoundland, where the weather is wild, but the locals never lack for warmth, this remarkable true story is filled with unusual characters, unexpected camaraderie and uncommon generosity.
- ❖ How they met, how they rose, the groundbreaking heights they hit, and how personal and political conflicts threatened to tear the group apart as the United States fell into civil unrest - Ain't Too Proud is the electrifying new musical about the life and times of The Temptations. Get your R&B fix at the Princess of Wales Theatre beginning on October 11.
- ❖ Back by popular demand for three weeks only, starting on October 16 at the Ed Mirvish Theatre, experience the thrill of London's most spectacular musical as Bat Out of Hell brings to life the legendary anthems of Jim Steinman and Meat Loaf. This electrifying musical is a critically-acclaimed, award-winning production that combines the magic of a musical, with the immense energy of rock 'n' roll.
- ❖ FRIENDS! The Musical Parody is the hilarious new musical that lovingly lampoons TV's Friends, celebrating the wacky misadventures of everyone's favorite group of 20-something pals as they navigate the pitfalls of work, life, and love in 1990s Manhattan. Opening on November 1 at the CAA Theatre, this delightfully naughty confection plucks the best moments from the show's ten years and recreates the moments through an uncensored, fast-paced, music filled romp, winning over audiences along the way.
- ❖ Charlie And The Chocolate Factory, Roald Dahl's amazing tale, is now Toronto's golden ticket. It's the perfect recipe for a delectable treat: songs from the original film, including Pure Imagination, The Candy Man, and I've Got a Golden Ticket, alongside a toe-tapping and ear-tickling new score from the songwriters of Hairspray. Relive all of the magic starting on November 20 at the Princess of Wales Theatre.
- ❖ Based on the hit film, School of Rock is the hilarious new musical following Dewey Finn, a wannabe rock star posing as a substitute teacher who turns a class of straight-A students into a guitar-shredding, bass-slapping, mind-blowing rock band. This high-octane smash features 14 new songs from Andrew Lloyd Webber, original songs from the movie and musical theater's first-ever kids rock band playing their instruments live on stage. Rock the night away at the Ed Mirvish Theatre beginning on November 28.

The Toronto Symphony Orchestra (TSO) is back in action beginning on September 20 with shows such as Tchaicovsky's Sleeping Beauty, Home Alone in Concert, Tchaicovsky's The Nutcracker & More, Messiah, and the TSO Holiday Pops. For a full listing of the TSO's fall programming, visit their events page.

The Sony Centre for the Performing Arts hosts a variety of eclectic shows in its 3,191 seat theatre. Some notable shows include Casino Royale In Concert, acts from this year's JFL42 and Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire™ in Concert. To see a full events calendar visit the Sony Centre's calendar page.

EXHIBITS & ATTRACTIONS

Royal Ontario Museum:

- #MeToo & the Arts features an original display and a slate of programs on sexualized harassment and gender inequity in the arts. This public engagement seeks to encourage a larger conversation on how museums are engaging with art within the context of the #MeToo and Time's Up movements. Free to the public through to October 21, 2018, the display is located at the entrance to the Michael Lee-Chin Crystal in the Thorsell Spirit House. For a full list of detailed programming, visit the exhibit webpage.
- Modernism on the Ganges: Raghbir Singh Photographs showcases one of India's most visionary and celebrated pioneers in colour photography. Raghbir Singh (1942–1999) was a prolific photographer whose creative style revealed the dramatic palette of India's streets, places and peoples through a distinct lens. Tracing the full trajectory of his career from the late 1960s to his last unpublished projects of the late 1990s, this exhibition showcases the iconic depictions of Indian life and culture in vivid colour and runs through to October 21, 2018.

Ripley's Aquarium of Canada:

- Every second Friday of the fall season, Ripley's will continue to host its acclaimed "Friday Night Jazz", complete with musical guests, and access to the aquarium. Be sure to try their very own Lagoon Lager, exclusive at the Friday Night Jazz series and other special events.
